

GW Global Insurance and Hanna Global Solutions forms strategic partnership

San Francisco, CA - January, 2014 – GW Global has engaged Hanna Global Solutions to deliver benefits administration solutions to support its clients and products. Hanna Global utilizes a proprietary technology platform for online enrollment and benefits management for employers and employees. Their full-service advocacy team will support employees with benefits and HR issues.

“With over 15 years of delivering benefits accounting and admin services we know we have a trusted partner to support our clients,” says Dan Boisvert, CEO of GW Global. “It’s important to us that our clients get the best services possible on an ongoing basis. We feel Hanna Global fits into our company culture of product innovation and working with intelligent people who are experts in the insurance benefits industry.”

GW global will be able to offer support to brokers and business channels and work with clients through Hanna to support and understand the Affordable Care Act as it gets launched this year. We expect to launch our strategic partnership with Hanna Global in Q1 of 2014.

About GWGlobal

“GW Global was formed in 2012 with the primary goal of facilitating solutions to the pain points that our producers’ clients are facing. In order to accomplish this objective, we have hired talented individuals that are experienced and innovative and that can facilitate solutions to complex problems. We strive to be a valued partner to our brokers and agents and provide a variety of creative products and platforms that can enhance our distributor’s offerings to their clients.”
